Through Sheryl's special gifts, a voice is given to our beloved animals. This is a chance for them to speak, to be better understood and to teach the truer connection that the heavens wish for us to understand about the interdimensional love that we are connected through with our loved ones...of fur. The angelic presences present, during this forum, assist us in better understanding the thought processes and feelings of our soul friends. This communication is invaluable, supporting the relationships that we each have with our pets. You will be truly amazed at what unfolds here, as a healing exchange occurs in this forum.
